

Researching Ethics / Ethics of Research
Challenges of Data, Algorithms and Artificial Intelligence

Programme

12 October

Södertörn University

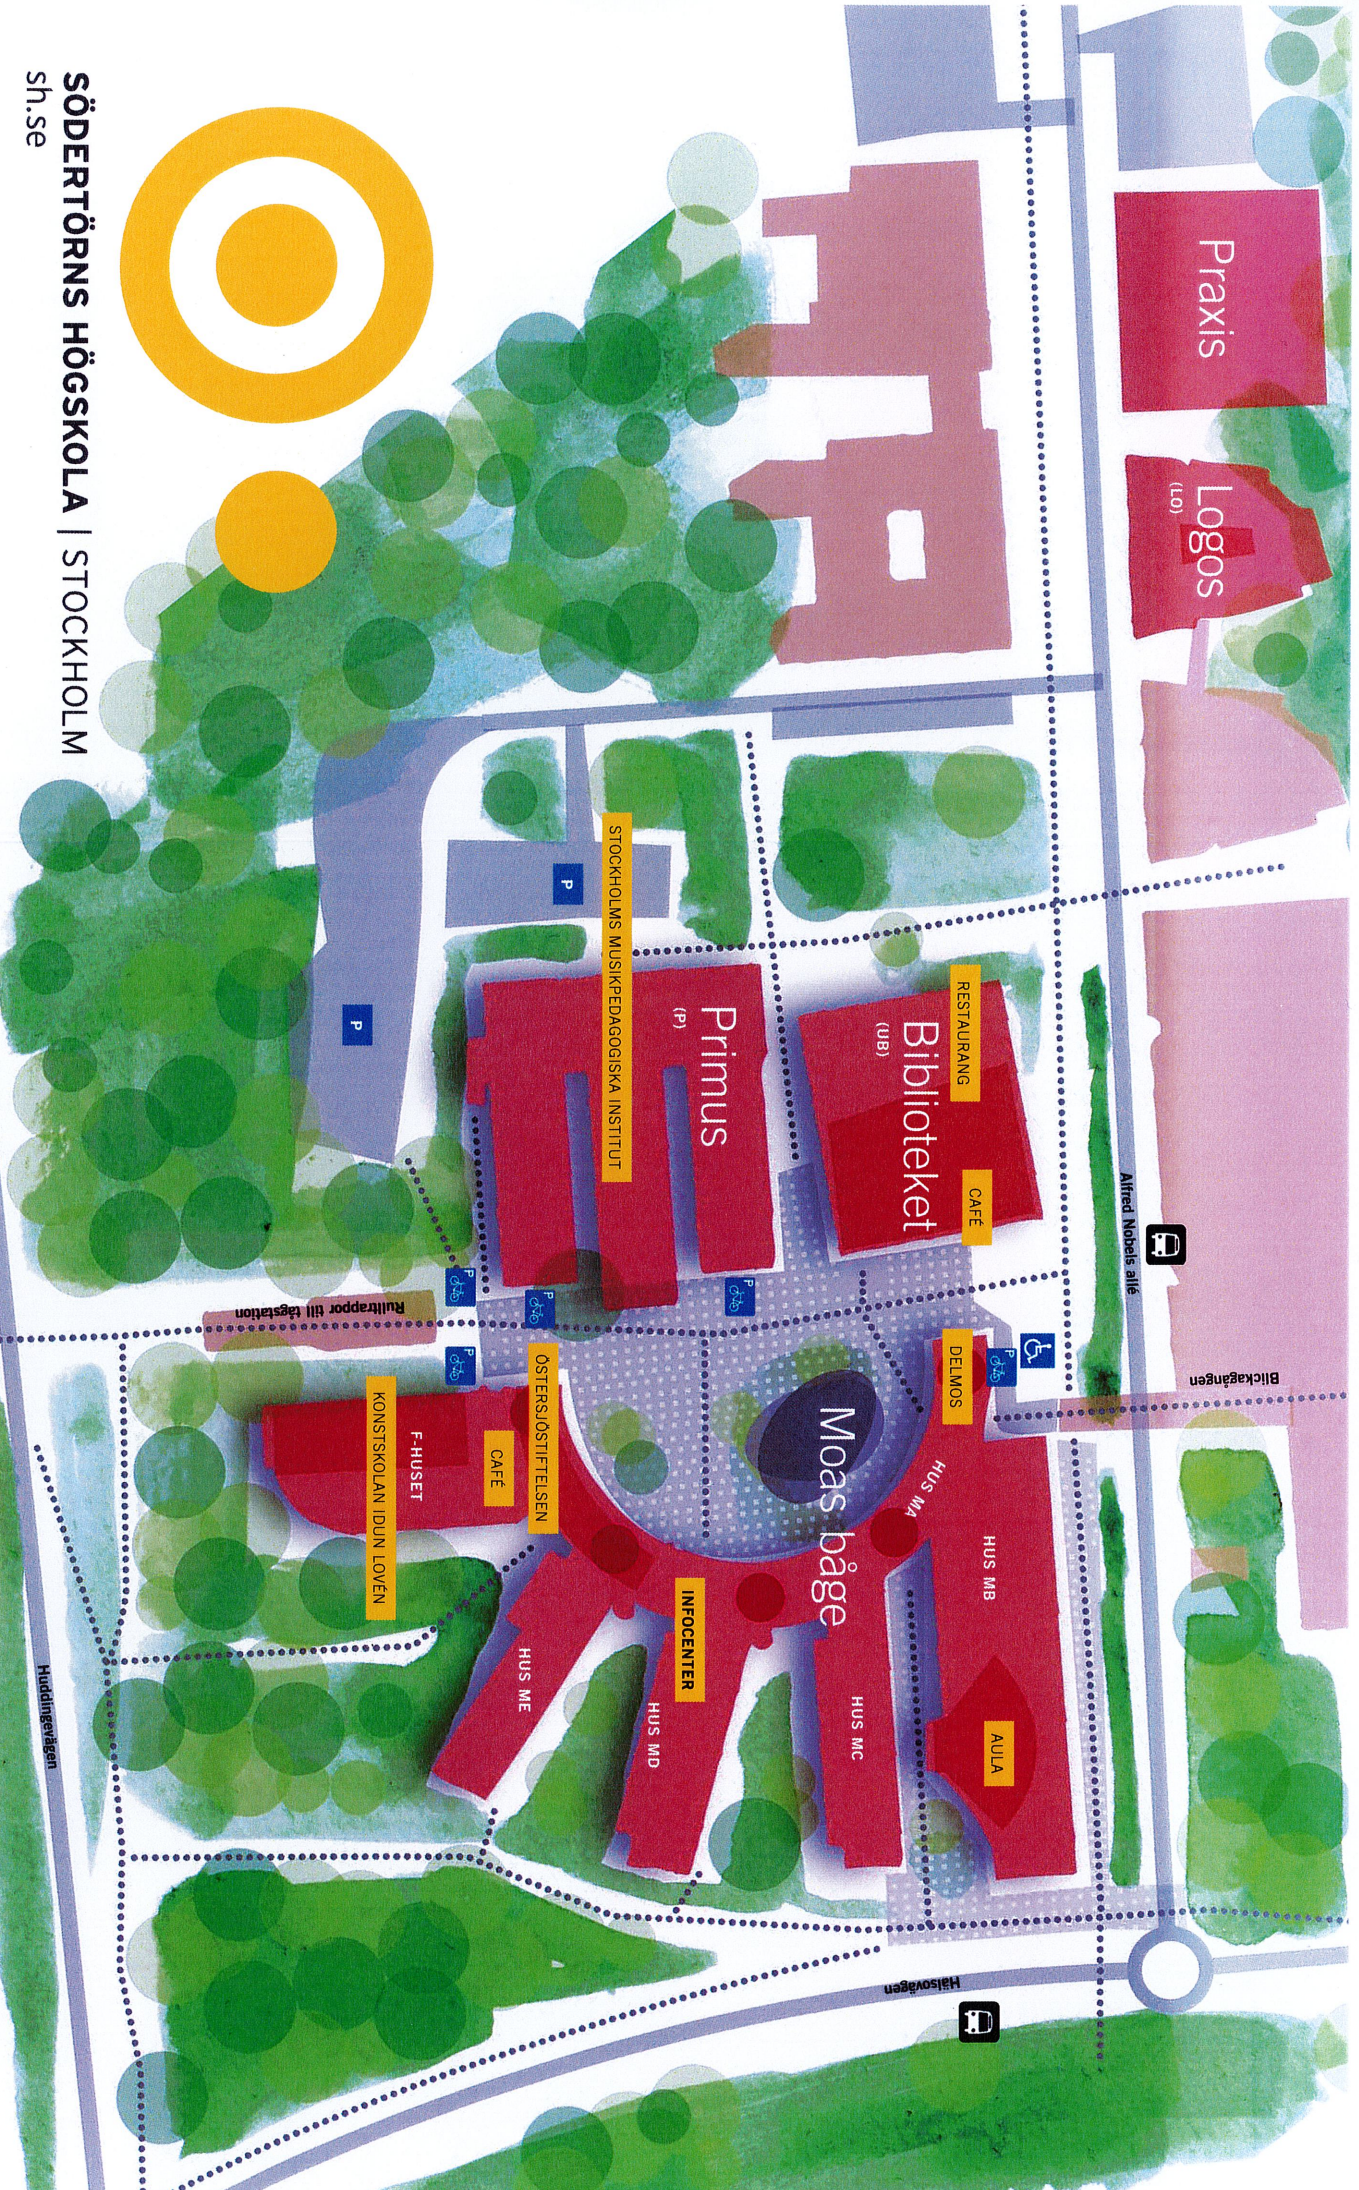

Location: UB425, Library building

Commuter train station: Flemingsberg

- 9.30-10 Fika
- 10-12 Session 1. Chair: Stina Bengtsson
- 10-10.15 Welcome and logistics
- 10.15 Keynote address: David Gunkel
- 11:15 Mats Bergman and Henrik Rydenfelt: Meaning ex machina?
- 12.30 Lunch, Restaurant Allé 11
- 13.30-16 Session 2. Chair: Henrik Rydenfelt
- 13.30 Randa Romanova: Similar media systems, different self-regulation: A closer look at the Nordic media accountability models.
- 14.15 Saralie Sernhede: Fridays for Future as an Alternative Educational Context: actor-networks, media practices, and the emergence of citizens of the world in times of crises.
- 15 Fika
- 15.30 Klaus Bruhn Jensen: Green surveillance: Recovering the concept of surveillance for transformative communication research.
- 20 Dinner at Biblioteket Live, Medborgarplatsen

13 October
Stallet, van der Nootska palatset
St Paulsgatan 21, Stockholm (Södermalm)

- 9.30-10 Fika
- 10-12 Session 1. Chair: Stina Bengtsson
- 10 Salla-Maaria Laaksonen and Erjon Skenderi: Tinder for Working Life: Ethical Considerations for Using Digital Chat Data in Organizations.
- 11 Göran Bolin: Communicative AI and Techno-Semiotic Mediatization: Understanding the Communicative Role of the Machine.
- 12-13 Lunch
- 13-15 Session 2. Chair: Mats Bergman
- 13 Stefanie Sirén-Heikel: Agency lost in the machine? – The ethical dilemmas of researching job automation.
- 14 Joint discussion about future collaborations
- 14.30 Fika and farewell

SÖDERTÖRNS HÖGSKOLA | STOCKHOLM
sh.se

HAR DU NÅGRA FRÅGOR?

Kontakta Infocenter på 08-608 40 00 eller info@sh.se